Entry Details

Five bands will be selected to perform at the Hunter TAFE 2010 Band Comp Final. Winner gets to play in TAFE NSW Band Comp Final in Sydney (with travel and accommodation provided for by the Student Association) and may then progress to compete against regional university winners. Bands must apply to the Student Association in order to be considered to perform in the Hunter TAFE 2010 Band Comp Final.

Bands must submit an audio CD (hint: put your best song on first). Don't worry if the production isn't world-class. A DVD or links to videos online may also be submitted in addition to this.

Band must attach a one page bio and at least one photo.

Applications must be received by 5pm on March 12th. Drop applications in to Bookshop at Newcastle Campus (Tighes Hill) or post to:

This competition is open to all styles. At the 2009 TAFE NSW State Final, we had a death metal band, acoustic artists, and everything in between. Please note that it is a band competition so unfortunately solo artists cannot be considered.

This entry form does not represent an application in the National Campus Band Competition (NCBC). Bands chosen to compete in the Hunter TAFE Band Comp Final will be required to complete an entry form into NCBC and the TAFE NSW Band Competition. Bands that are not chosen are not disqualified from entering NCBC through another institution such as the University of Newcastle.

Prizes – 1st place – a spot in the TAFE NSW Final for which the Student Association will cover travel and accommodation expenses as well as a meal allowance.

Successful bands will be notified by March 31st.

Judges decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.

Production – Full backline will need to be supplied by the band. Arrangements may be made to share equipment with other participating bands but the Student Association takes no responsibility for this. A full PA and operator will be supplied.
